Sudan: Humanitarian Dashboard (31 May 2014)

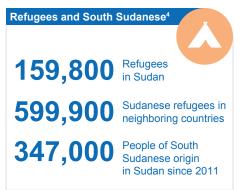

OVERVIEW

A total of 6.1 million people are in need of humanitarian assistance in Sudan. In 2013, the humanitarian situation deteriorated with more people displaced throughout the Darfur states, South and North Kordofan, and Blue Nile. Since the beginning of 2014, fighting between Government security forces and armed movements have led to the internal displacement of an estimated 255,393 people in Darfur. Ongoing conflict in South Sudan has led to an estimated 85,574 people crossing the border into Sudan.
